

Too Loud

December 4, 2012

My children. You are attacked by voices of corruption daily. Too loud and too long. They have an effect on your spirit. Don't let the confusion of the anti-Christ control your life.

My purpose has always been for your spiritual and physical well being. I walked and fellow shipped with your ancestors in the garden. I sent my Son, Jesus, to die for your transgressions. Now I am giving you a last opportunity. Come onto me in covenant through my Holy Spirit.

You have heard the lies of the enemy presented in so many ways. My Word is always pure and never changes.

I am part of you by design. There are many demonic affects the world has on you (Spirit)

Your body and soul try to control the real you. Making demands fed by your lust, wants and needs. I created you with desires to be in harmony and fellowship with Me your creator. The battle rages until you come to the realization of my love. Accept My gift of eternal salvation.

Worldly external confusion and lies make demands upon your spirit. They influence you to turn and stay away from my fellowship. This false relationship only leads to separation and eventually destruction.

You have become complacent and forgot the gift I gave you. Relying on your soul and falling away from my purpose. I still desire for you to return to me. I will chastise you because I love my children.

Your diversion (love of mammon) has created a trap. The antichrist spirit is now forcing on you a yoke of oppression. One world control is hard to escape. You desire to be taken care of without fulfilling my Word. This trap will lead to destruction. I will allow demonic pressure and physical calamities to befall you. Until, you finally repent and turn to me in true covenant relationship.

Only by obedience, worship, and fellowship, can you realize the fullness of my love and provision.

I wait at the door. The Holy Spirit will continue to urge you to Me. Finally, I will take my presence from everyone not in covenant with me. Turning those over to the devices of Satan.

You will see the manifestation of my Son's return. REPENT now and return to me.
